1. Purpose

The Leave Policy enables Prodaptians to take time off from work to relax, recover from illness, maternity or paternity, or for personal reasons. This document provides guidelines and information on the various kinds of leave that Prodaptians working in India may avail of, and the process of availing these kinds of leave.

2. Scope

This policy is applicable to all full-time employees who are on the rolls of Prodapt India.

3. Effective Date

This policy is effective 1 January, 2017.

4. Intended Audience

All full-time Prodaptians who are on the rolls of Prodapt India.

5. Definitions

#	Term	Meaning
1.	Reporting Manager (RM)	A Prodaptian's immediate supervisor
2.	Account Owner (AO)	Senior Director and above (for IT and TOPS)
3.	Functional Owner (FO)	Senior Director and above (for support functions, e.g. HR, IT, Finance, Admin, Quality)
4.	Delivery Lead (DL) Role	Manager, Senior Manager & Associate Directors

6. Guiding principles

- We encourage Prodaptians to periodically take leave from work to de-stress and resume office after being re-energized.
- We encourage Prodaptians to plan ahead in taking their leaves to ensure business continuity.
- Leave entitlements have been decided while taking into account the needs of both the business and individual Prodaptians.

7. Leave Types, and Application Process

7.1. Leave Calendar Year

Each Prodaptian's leave account is operated on a calendar year basis, from 01 January to 31 December.

7.2. National and Festival Holidays

All Prodaptians are entitled to designated public holidays that are declared by the company at the beginning of the calendar year.

If a public holiday falls within the annual leave period taken by a Prodaptian, it is not counted as part of the annual leave entitlement.

7.3. Intervening Holidays

Intervening holidays are not taken into account for calculation of availed leaves except where specified. For example, if a Prodaptian has applied for leave from Friday to Wednesday, then the number of leaves calculated is four days (i.e. Saturday and Sunday are not included).

7.4. Types of Leave Entitlement

Prodaptians are entitled to the following types of leaves, in addition to public holidays:

- Privilege Leave (PL)
- Casual Leave (CL)
- Sick Leave (SL)
- Maternity Leave (ML)
- Paternity Leave
- Loss of Pay (LOP)

The criteria for eligibility, application process and other leave details are listed below.

7.4.1. Privilege Leave (PL)

Eligibility

All Prodaptians on the rolls of Prodapt India are eligible for PL.

Entitlement

- Every Prodaptian is eligible for 12 (twelve) days of PL in a calendar year.

On completion of every calendar month, one day of PL is credited to their leave balance.

- For new joiners, PL credited will be on a pro rata basis.
- Loss of Pay (LOP days) will not affect PL accumulation.

Carry Forward of Unused Leave

- If Prodaptians are unable to take all their PL during the leave accounting year, they may to carry forward their remaining PLs to the next calendar year, up to a maximum of 24 days of PL.
- Prodaptians may have a maximum PL balance of 24 days in the beginning of a calendar year. PLs in excess of 24 days will lapse after 31 December of the calendar year.
 - Example: A Prodaptian carries forward 24 days of PL from 31 December of one year into the next calendar year. They then gain 12 days by the end of the new calendar year, which means they have accrued a total of 36 days by 31 December. However, since they can carry forward only 24 days of PL at the end of the year, the extra 12 days will lapse.

Leave Encashment

- Any unused days of PL are encashed only on the Prodaptian's separation from the company. The encashment is calculated basis of the pro rata leave balance as shown in the ERP portal as Prodaptian's last working day.
- The encashment amount is calculated on the basic component of the Prodaptian's salary at the time of separation.

Leave Application Process

- Prodaptians must submit a leave request through the ERP at least three working days prior to, or after returning from, their vacation. Prodaptians up to the grade of P4 must also obtain their Reporting Manager's approval prior applying for planned leave.
- Prior approval from the respective Reporting Manager is necessary to take PL.
- PL applications of Prodaptians of grade P5B and above are auto-approved in the system, with an automatic notification sent to the Reporting Manager via email.
- PL can be combined with any holidays and/or weekends immediately before or after the PL days; the holidays and/or weekend will not be counted as PL.

7.4.2. Casual Leave (CL)

Eligibility

All Prodaptians on the rolls of Prodapt India are eligible for CL.

Entitlement

- Every Prodaptian is entitled to seven (7) days of CL in a calendar year.
- All seven days of CL are credited to a Prodaptian's leave balance at the beginning of the calendar year.
- For new joiners, CL is credited on a pro rata basis at the time of their joining.

Carry Forward of Unused Leave

CL cannot be carried forward; any unused days of CL at the end of the calendar year will lapse.

Leave Encashment

CL cannot be encashed.

Leave Application Process

- For Prodaptians up to the level of P4, prior approval from the respective Reporting Manager is necessary to take CL.
- CL applications of Prodaptians of grade P5B and above are auto-approved in the system, with an automatic notification sent to the Reporting Manager via email.
- CL can be combined with any holidays and/or weekends immediately before or after the CL days; the holidays and/or weekend will not be counted as CL.

7.4.3. Sick Leave (SL)

Eligibility

All Prodaptians on the rolls of Prodapt India are eligible for SL.

Entitlement

- Every Prodaptian is entitled to five (5) days of SL in a calendar year.
- All five days of SL are credited to a Prodaptian's leave balance at the beginning of the calendar year.

For new joiners, SL is credited on a pro rata basis at the time of their joining.

Carry Forward of Unused Leave

- If Prodaptians do not take all their SL during the year, they may carry forward their remaining SLs to the next calendar year, up to a maximum of 30 days of SL.

- Any days of SL in excess of 30 will lapse at the beginning of the calendar year.
 - Example: A Prodaptian carries forward 30 days of SL from 31 December of one year into the next calendar year. They then gain five days in the new calendar year. If they do not use these, they will have accrued a total of 35 days by the end of the year. However, since they can carry forward only 30 days of SL to the next year, the extra five days will lapse at the end of the year.

Leave Encashment

SL cannot be encashed.

Leave Application Process

- A Prodaptian can take SL by notifying their Reporting Manager via a phone call or email.
- Once the Prodaptian reports back to work, their leave records in ERP must be updated within three working days.
- SL applications of Prodaptians of grade P5B and above are auto-approved in the system, with an automatic notification sent to the Reporting Manager via email.

7.4.4. Maternity Leave (ML)

Eligibility

All female Prodaptians who have been on the rolls of Prodapt India for at least 80 calendar days before the expected date of delivery are eligible for ML.

The revised ML policy, as per law, is effective 01 April, 2017.

Entitlement

- All female Prodaptians are entitled to 26 (twenty-six) weeks of paid Maternity Leave (ML) for the birth of the first two surviving children, provided that not more than eight (8) weeks of ML are availed prior to the date of expected delivery.

- In case of the birth of a child beyond the first two, the female Prodaptian is entitled to 12 (twelve) weeks of paid ML, provided that not more than six (6) weeks of ML are availed prior to the date of expected delivery, and six (6) weeks of ML are availed immediately after the date of expected delivery.
- In case a female Prodaptian legally adopts a child below three months of age or is a commissioning mother, they are entitled to 12 (twelve) weeks of ML from the date the child is handed over to the Prodaptian.
- A female Prodaptian may be permitted to work from home after the ML period only if the nature of work assigned permits them to work from home. This option can be availed of for a duration that is mutually agreed upon by the Department Head and the female Prodaptian.
- Further, a female Prodaptian may be allowed to avail an extended maternity leave for up to four (4) weeks on Loss of Pay for illness arising out of pregnancy, subject to approval by the Department Head, and on production of proof of the said illness from a registered medical practitioner, or from a company authorized doctor. • ML is inclusive of all intervening weekends and any other holiday declared by the organization.

Miscarriage

In case of a miscarriage, female Prodaptians are entitled to six (6) weeks of paid leave immediately from the date of miscarriage, on submission of a medical certificate from a registered medical practitioner, and providing the Reporting Manager supports the need for such leave.

Carry Forward of Unused Leave This is not applicable to ML.

Leave Encashment

ML cannot be encashed.

Leave Application Process

- Prodaptians must raise an ML request through the ERP at least 10 weeks in advance, and obtain their Reporting Manager's approval.
- Prodaptians must also submit scanned copies of relevant medical certificates from a registered medical practitioner to HR and their Reporting Manager. The Reporting Manager will then approve the ML request in ERP.

The Prodaptian may start taking their ML up to eight weeks before the expected date of delivery.

- Before starting their Maternity Leave, the Prodaptian must fill, sign and submit the ML Checklist to HR.

○ The ML Checklist can be found using this path: VOP > Departments > HR > HR India > Policies and Templates > Template for ML Checklist

- On returning to work after ML, the Prodaptian must submit a fitness certificate to HR.

7.4.5. Paternity Leave

Eligibility

All male Prodaptians on the rolls of Prodapt India are eligible for Paternity Leave.

Entitlement

- Male Prodaptians are entitled to five (5) working days of paid leave each for the birth of the first two children.
- The Prodaptian may take these leaves any time within one month after the birth of the child.

Carry Forward of Unused Leave

This is not applicable to Paternity Leave.

Leave Encashment

Paternity Leave cannot be encashed.

Leave Application Process

- Prodaptians must raise a Paternity Leave request through the ERP at least two working days in advance of taking their leave, and obtain their Reporting Manager's approval.
- Paternity Leave applications of Prodaptians of grade P5B and above are autoapproved in the system, with an automatic notification sent to the Reporting Manager via email.

7.4.6. Loss of Pay (LOP)

Eligibility

All Prodaptians on the rolls of Prodapt India and currently working in India are eligible to take LOP leaves. Entitlement

A Prodaptian may take up to a total of 60 calendar days of LOP in a period of two years.

Carry Forward of Unused Leave This is not applicable to LOP.

Leave Application Process

- Prodaptians must raise an LOP request through the ERP in advance and obtain approval based on the below approval matrix:

Number of LOP days	Approval level
	IT division	TOPS division
Up to 15 days	PM and above	DL role and above
From 16 to 60 days	Account owner/Functional owner	Account owner/Functional owner

- Leaves may be approved or rejected based on the needs of the business.
- Prodaptians must keep HR informed about the number of LOP leaves approved.

8. Addendum to Process

- All leaves must be recorded and approved on ERP.
- It is mandatory for Prodaptians to update their leave records at least three working days before going on leave, or within three working days of their return to work.
- Any leave that is not updated in ERP will be considered unauthorized absence, and will be treated as Loss of Pay.
- In case a Prodaptian is on unauthorized leave for more than three days, the Reporting Manager must report it to HR immediately.

Any leaves taken while serving notice period will result in the notice period being extended by as many days.

9. Exceptions

Any exception to this policy must be approved by the CHRO.

10. Amendment

The company reserves the right to amend, modify, withdraw and revise any or all clauses of this policy depending upon the exigencies of business without assigning any reason whatsoever.

11. Interpretation

The Human Resource department is the final authority regarding the interpretation of any clause or portion of this policy document. This version of the Policy supersedes any other Policy that may have been released earlier regarding Leaves.
